

ROAD TO WIMBLEDON 2017

AITA RULES & REGULATIONS FOR RTW MASTERS

Sixteen players will be identified for the Masters, the finalists of which will earn a direct entry to the RTW, to be held in August 2017 at the All England Club.

The qualifying events will begin in Pune from January 16 and followed by Bangalore (from January 23), Chandigarh (from February 6) and Kolkata (from February 13).

Kolkata and Chandigarh will be the grass court tournaments while Bangalore and Pune competitions will be on the hard courts.

As per the qualification process, the players will be awarded points on the basis of their singles performance and their best three performances will be considered for selection to the Masters (Finals).

The top-16 performers will compete in the Masters, scheduled to begin from April 10 in New Delhi.

All the qualifying events will be marked as AITA National Series events and the players can gain national ranking points.
